1. Reports from the Soviet Commercial Mission in Alexandria, Egypt, to the Soviet "Center" (sic) at 12 Gorky Street, Moscow, reveal that negotiations are under way with S. Arlin Sons, 888 Maltonado Street, Montevideo, Uruguay, for the procurement of 10 million cans of preserved meat (to come from factories in Paraguay); this meat is said to be destined for the Albanian Armed Forces.
2. Other reports from the Soviet Commercial Mission, signed by Comrade Plotnikov, indicated that a collection was under way of large amounts of "dry foods", allegedly to be used in the supplying of Soviet vessels in the event of war. Canned fish is now being purchased from Scandinavia.
